The Anvil Herald was misinformed as to the Barrientes business house mention of which was made in last week's paper. The building instead of being constructed of lumber, is to be built of brick throughout, and will be 32x72 feet. The Facts About LOW-COST TRANSPORTATION

Chapter IV THOROUGH LUBRICATION SAVES MOTOR AND MONEY

Q. What kind of a lubrication system have most popular priced cars?

A. They have a splash system.

Q. What kind of a lubrication system have the motors in high class, high priced cars?

A. They have a forced feed lubrication system. Q. Why is the force feed system better than the splash system? A. The forced feed system forces oil under pressure to the moving parts of the motor. It is admittedly the better system but due to its cost of installation it has heretofore only been used in high priced cars. Q. What kind of a lubricating system has the new Star Motor? A. A forced feed system like the high priced cars.

Q. How does the Star forced feed lubricating system operate?

A. The oil is taken from the crank case through a strainer by a gear pump driven by the crank shaft. It is forced under high pressure through the drilled camshaft to the cam bearings. Leads in these bearings carry the oil to the three main crankshaft bearings from which it is carried by leads in the main crankshaft to the connecting rodbearing. The oil from these bearings is thrown by centrifugal force to the cylinder walls, pistons and piston pin bearings. There is also a lead to the front end of the motor to lubricate the silent

By W. D. Trotter.

The following extract from the an insight into the stern old fellow's ideas of an education:

'My will is that my sons should receive solid and useful education, and that no portion of their time may be devoted to the study of abstract sciences. I greatly desire that they may possess a thorough knowledge of the English language, with a good knowledge of the Latin language. I also instruct that they be instructed in the knowledge of the Holy Script-ures; and next to these that they be rendered thorough in a knowledge of Geography and History. I wish my sons early thaught and utter contempt for novels and light reading.

INVESTMENT.

Down in southern Illinois a few years ago a man named Sloan from Harrisburg established a general merchandise business to compete with old established concerns that had the trade of the county. Mr. Sloan surprised the community by taking a large ad every week in the local paper. His ads were well written and prices featured in big figures. The other merchants all laughed and said Sloan would go broke spending all his money on advertsing. In a few years the new store had pulled nearly all the trade of the town and county from the old stores. A little later, Mr. Sloan organized the Roseenthal-Sloan Millinery Co., on Washington Avenue, in St. Louis, the largest wholesale millinery house west of the Mississippi River. More recently he helped organize the McElroy-Sloan Shoe Co., large manufacturing concern of St. Louis. He is now worth two millions of dollars. That's the way he "went broke." -Democrat, Marshall, Ill.

Historical Fact

DID you know that George Washington, The adopted Father of our Country, just before he got on the Ferry to cross the Delaware for the Photographing of that now famous Picture, Did you know that he smoked two sacks of 'Bull' Durham while he was waiting for the Ferry? (things were just as late in his War, as they were in our last one). Now I have never heard of this 'Bull' Durham episode before, neither have I ever heard it denied. So if it's never either been affirmed or denied, there is no reason to disbelieve that it's not true. 'Bull' Durham originated in Virginia, and Washington lived in Virginia, and he was a great man to patronize home industries. And as Washington was the best man of his day, and Durham the best tobacco of its day, there is no plausible reason to doubt that these two most excellent Institutions didn't readily recognize the good in each other and get together.

This Rogers SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AGO!

> In 1860 a blend of tobacco was born-'Bulf Durham. On quality alone it has won recog nition wherever tobac co is known. It still offers the public thismore flavor, more enjoyment and a lot more money left at the end of a week's smoking.

Buick Loops Globe in Record Run

The car, a Standard Six Touring model, is strictly "on its own," being unaccompanied by mechanics or special drivers. When it returns to New York City the machine will have been handled by approximately 350 different drivers.

The last difficult leg of the long runs of the car was not being nothing more than a cart track strewn with large boulders. In the run over the Lebanon Mountains the car climbed to a height of more than a mile. After spending the night at Damascus, the 540-mile run to Bagdad was made at an average speed of 35 miles an hour."

The Mesopotamian distributors took the Buick at Damascus, the Buick at Damascus, the Buick at Damascus, the Buick at Damascus and Damascus, the Stophan distributors and Damascus and Damascus, the Stophan distributors are special drivers.

representatives only, it has demonstrated Buick's ability to withstand the "man-handling" from hundreds of drivers of various nationalities and degrees of skill.

The Syrian desert was crossed without difficulty. The Buick distributor in Beirut, however, gives some idea of the country traversed, in the following letter excerpt:

The last difficult leg of the trip has been completed, a long run over the questionable roads across the continent of Australia. The car is now enroute to New Zealand and Honolulu, from whence it will be shipped to San Francisco and driven across the United States through Detroit and Flint to New York.

The trip around the world was conceived to demonstrate that a Buick will travel to the remote corners of the earth and that on such a journey it is always safeguarded by service facilities.

The globe-encircling car has made its trip without faltering. Driven from dealer to dealer by dealers' representatives only, it has demonthen to Sydney, from which point it was shipped to New Zealand.

After completion of the globe journey it is planned to preserve the car as an object of historical interest.
